THE MAJESTIC

GRILLE

OUR STORY

In the early 1900's it wasn't hard to find Mr. Bert Jordan of the Majestic No.1 Theatre. Dressed in a tuxedo, he would stand outside the box office each day welcoming eager moviegoers. He was an ever present fixture of Downtown Memphis Main Street hospitality, waving to passers-by and tourists on trolleys. Today, we carry on that same spirit established by Mr. Jordan over 100 years ago.

Home for over four decades to everyone's favorite men's shop, Julius Lewis, an outpost for Goldsmith's Department Store, Blue Light Studios & eventually a Brewery, The Majestic Grille now bears the name of the original theatre, letting us all a peek into the golden era of silent films.

We think Mr. Jordan would enjoy himself.
And we think you will too.
